Late December, 2007*

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

Joining us are our friends John Tis, an orthopedic surgeon from Baghdad, and Lance, a special ops medic

The Cooks from the Valley is a group of business men who brought 700 steaks and a large grill with them to Iraq. The best meal of the rotation by far.

Lance Armstrong, Kid Rock, Robin Williams, and Lewis Black put on a great daytime outdoor show.

In Addition to our Families, Many Thanks to:

Mr. Saletta and the Industrial Lubricants Industry, Brownie Troop 2931, Bill Duke, The Knights of Columbus of Little Falls NJ, MTC Technologies, Claudia Glass, Sigma Nu of Gettysberg College, A1C Smith from WPAFB, Les Robbins

Random shots from AFTH- no gross stuff or parts though

A pair of Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders accompanied the Country singer Daryl Worley on a tour through the hospital. His trio played a great set for the troops and Ward staff. Finally, some smiles.

Mike has been tirelessly working on OR# 5. He's our MVP.

Suhan and her three older brothers were all injured in a mortar attack on her home

We are enjoying the Christmas Lobster Dinner, but, it's just not the same as being home.

Christmas Eve Lunch on the roof.

Eric and "the Rocket" wait for another day to pass. Yes, we are all counting down.
